Guests who can afford to make a luxurious excursion across Australia can travel aboard a Falcon 900 jet with 14 seats and three cabins.

Getting to know Australia's diverse landscapes is already a dream for many, now imagine doing it in deluxe style on a private jet.

Touring Treasures, a luxury travel company, had the amazing idea of partnering with Adagold Luxe, a private charter company based on Australia, and created a mesmerizing itinerary that allows you to stay in World-class hotels while enjoying nature and the most fascinating itineraries in the South Pacific.

Indeed, this trip is great if you can pay for it and if you want to get to know Australia in the deepest and intimate way.

The itinerary is full of wildlife adventures, gourmet dining, private museum tours, and accommodation in the best hotels and resorts. While on air, the jet has two divans that transform into beds in case you want to rest. Something that might be hard in a private plane that also has a great entertainment system, and a satellite phone for you to gossip about everything all journey.

Experience the wonders of Australia in a seamless journey through Sydney, Canberra, Tasmania, Port Arthur, Bruny Island, Kangaroo Island, Barossa wine country, Coober Pedy, Uluru, Kununurra, Uluru-Kata Tjuta National Park, El Questro National Park and Hamilton Island.

Get acquainted with the reefs, the forests, and the vibrant cities, if you can spend money on a trip like this. It can be epic in every sense of the way!

At the end of the journey, we assure you that you'll know more about Australia than some of its inhabitants. Travelers have to be in good health and comfortable with climbing and walking for long periods. An engaging team will accompany the expedition sharing its knowledge about the different locations.

Already feel like dreaming? Just to know all of this, we wouldn't bother flying on a cheap commercial plane. But when you're rich, besides enjoying the fabulous wonders of exotic nature, you get world-class accommodation and dine the most exquisite dishes in the best restaurants.

Koalas and Kangaroos are waiting for you!
